

Organizational and Operational Rules and Regulations governing The Board of Directors of “CONPET” S.A.

(1) CONPET SA is being administered by a Board of Directors (BoD), made up of 7 administrators elected by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

(2) The Board of Directors is presided by a Chairman. The Chairman is elected by the Board of Directors from among its members. The revocation from the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors is still the attribute of the Board of Directors. The decision regarding the appointment or revocation thereof is being made by the majority vote of the Board of Directors' members.

(3) In case of vacancy of one or more administrator position, the Board of Directors proceeds to the appointment of some provisional administrators, until the reunion of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

(4) The Board of Directors is constituted of the following persons:

1	Gheorghe Cristian - Florin	Chairman of the BoD;
2	Iacob Constantin - Ciprian	Member of the BoD;
3	Popa Claudiu – Aurelian	Member of the BoD;
4	Gavrilă Florin - Daniel	Member of the BoD;
5	Albulescu Mihai-Adrian	Member of the BoD;
6	Buică Nicușor-Marian	Member of the BoD;
7	Kohalmi - Szabo Luminița - Doina	Member of the BoD.

In case amendments occur in the membership of the Board of Directors, these Organizational and Operational Rules and Regulations will be updated with the new administrator(s), following the enforcement of the OGMS Resolution, respectively pursuant to the Board of Directors' Decision.

(5) At the Board of Directors level are being constituted the following consultative committees:

- The Nomination and Remuneration Committee:

Mr. Albulescu Mihai– Adrian- President; Members: Popa Claudiu– Aurelian, Mr. Gavrilă Florin – Daniel, Mr. Buică Nicușor – Marian, Mrs. Kohalmi - Szabo Luminița - Doina

The Audit Committee: Mr. Gavrilă Florin – Daniel - President; Members: Mr. Iacob Constantin– Ciprian, Mr. Buică Nicușor – Marian

- The Committee for Development and Investor&Authorities Relation: Mr. Popa Claudiu – Aurelian - President; Members: Mr. Albulescu Mihai- Adrian, Mr. Iacob Constantin – Ciprian.

The Board of Directors may constitute, by decision, other consultative committees, in various business areas, pursuant to the company's needs and management strategy. The consultative committees are made up of at least 2 members, one of them holding the position of president of the respective committee. The consultative committees meet whenever necessary, at the President call, and the proposals/recommendations formulated by the Board of Directors (for the substantiation of his resolutions) are adopted by majority of expressed votes. The attributions and responsibilities of the consultative committees are being established by the Board of Directors.

(6) At least one member of each Consultative Committee should be an independent non-executive administrator. The Audit and Nomination and Remuneration Committees consist only of non-executive administrators. At least one member of the audit committee must have expertise in the application of the accounting policies or in financial audit.

(7) The Board of Directors usually meets at the company's headquarters or any place of business of the company or in any place communicated by the convening notice. Operative sessions of the BoD can be organized by remote communication devices meeting the technical conditions necessary for the identification of the participants, the factual participation thereof to the Board of Directors meetings and resubmission of the deliberations on a continuous basis (by e-mail, telephone, video call or other communication devices), whenever necessary, but at least every 3 months, at the Chairman call or at the reasoned request of 2 of its members or the Director General. The Board is being presided by the Chairman. In case the Chairman faces temporary incapacity to exercise his duties, along the respective state of facts, the Board of Directors may delegate another administrator to fulfill the Chairman position. The Board is also convened upon the substantiated request of at least two of the administrators or the Director General. In this case, the Agenda is being established by the authors of the request. The Chairman is bound to follow such request.

(8) For the validity of the decisions is necessary the presence (directly or by proxy) of at least five members of the Board and the decisions are made by the majority vote of the present members. The Chairman of the Board of Directors will have the casting vote in case of parity of votes.

(9) The Members of the Board of Directors can only be represented at the meetings of the respective body by other members thereof. A member present may represent only one absent member.

(10) In case of decisions made during the meetings where a member of the Board failed to participate, the latter remains liable, if, within 30 days of acknowledgment thereof he did not challenge it in the forms provided by the law.

11) The Board of Directors cannot decide on certain issues that are not included in the Agenda, except for the emergencies. In order to decide on the emergencies, the absent members will also be consulted, by various remote communication devices. The Chairman shall decide upon the urgency of the issues.

(12) in exceptional cases, motivated by the emergency of the situation and by the company's interest, the decisions of the Board of Directors can be made by the unanimous written vote of the members, the reunion thereof not being necessary. The Board of Directors will be requested the approval by telephone note, note that will be ratified within the following meeting of the Board; the execution of the telephone note by all the members represent the fulfillment of the condition regarding the unanimous vote expressed in writing.

(13) At the meetings shall attend the Chairman and the members of the Board of Directors. As the case may be, when deemed necessary, for additional information, the Chairman of the Board of Directors can invite at the meetings executive directors, internal auditors, as well as other employees of the company or specialists on various business fields from outside the company. The President of the Union can also be invited, for debating professional, economic and social issues. In view of defending the professional, economic and social rights and interests of the members, the latter will receive from the company's management the necessary information for the negotiation of the collective labor agreements. The articles contained in the decisions of the Board of Directors regarding the professional, economic and social issues will be communicated in writing to the President of the Union within two working days as of the meeting date.

(14) The Board of Directors is charged with the fulfillment of all the papers necessary and relevant for the achievement of the company's core business, except for those set apart by the law for the general meeting of shareholders.

(15) The Chairman and the members of the Board of Directors are being remunerated on a monthly basis, with a fix allowance whose quantum is established by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders will also establish the variable component of the administrators' remuneration.

(16) The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the company cannot be Director General thereof as well.

(17) The Director General organizes and leads a Steering Committee made up of executive directors. The Director General may convene at the meetings employees with management or executive prerogatives within the company, and, as the case may be, when debating professional, economic and social issues, he may also invite the President of the Union.

(18) The Steering Committee is being convened by the Director General whenever needed, for discussing issues related to the company's business and settle the necessary economic and technical-organizational measures. The subjects on the Agenda of the Board of Directors can be previously analyzed in the Steering Committee meeting, whether the Director General considers it necessary. (19) The following provisions apply to the administrators and the Director General under the same conditions:

 - e) the strict performance of the duties that the law and the Articles of Incorporation impose.

- f) The administrators are liable against the company for the prejudices caused by the acts performed by the Director General or the personnel employed, where the prejudice wouldn't have been produced if they had exercised the surveillance required by the duties related to their position.
- g) The Director General will inform the Board of Directors on all the irregularities ascertained following the fulfillment of his attributions;
- h) The administrators and the Director General are jointly liable, together with their immediate predecessors if, having acknowledged the irregularities performed thereby, they do not inform the internal auditor and the financial auditor thereupon;
- i) The liability for the acts performed or the omissions does not extend to the administrators or the Director General who have caused to consign, in the protocols journal of the Board of Directors, their objection and have informed the internal auditor and the financial auditor thereupon;
- j) The administrator or the Director General who holds, in a certain operation, directly or indirectly, interests contrary to the company's interests must inform the other administrators and the internal auditor thereupon and not take part to any deliberation related to this operation. The same obligation is assumed by the administrator or the Director General if, in a certain operation, he knows that his husband/wife has interest, the relatives or in-laws until the 4th degree (inclusive of);
- k) The interdictions settled at paragraph (j) are not applicable in case the scope of the vote is the following:
 - o offering for subscription, to an administrator or the director general or the persons mentioned at paragraph (j), company's stocks or bonds;
 - o granting, by the administrator or the director general or the persons mentioned at paragraph (j) of a loan or the establishment of a guarantee in favor of the company;
- l) It is prohibited the company's lending the administrators or the Director General by means of operations such as:
 - o granting loans;
 - o granting financial advantages on the occasion of or subsequent to the conclusion, between the company and the here-above mentioned, of goods delivery operations, services supply or works execution operations;
 - o To directly or indirectly guarantee, in whole or in part, any granted loans, concurrent or subsequent to the loan granting;
 - o To directly or indirectly guarantee, in whole or in part, the execution, by the administrators or the Director General, of any other personal obligation thereof in relation to third parties;
 - o The onerous acquire or the payment, in whole or in part, of a receivable having as scope a loan granted by a third party to the administrators or the general director or another personal service thereof.
- m) The provisions of paragraph (1) are also applicable to the operations in which are interested the husband or wife, relatives or in-laws up to the 4th degree inclusive of the administrator or the Director General; moreover, if the operation targets a civil or commercial society to which one of the previously mentioned persons is administrator or holds, alone or together with any of the persons mentioned above, a quota of at least 20% of the subscribed share capital value;
- n) The provisions of paragraph (1) are not applicable:
 - o in case of operations where exigible cumulated value is below the equivalent in RON of the amount of 5000 Euro;
 - o in case the operation is concluded by the company under the conditions of the current performance of its business, and the operation clauses are not more favorable to the persons provided at paragraphs (1) and (m) than those the company generally practices against third parties;
- o) Under sanction of nullity, the administrators or the Director General can, on their own behalf, alienate, respectively acquire, goods to or from the company having a value of over 10% of the company's net assets value, only after obtaining the approval of the extraordinary general meeting, under the conditions provided in Law no.31/1990 regarding the companies.

p) The members of the Board of Directors are bound to provide their wealth statement. The wealth statement will be filed to the Human Resources Department within the company, in 15 days as of their appointment or election in the capacity, or as of the date they start their activity. The members of the Board of Directors are bound to update their wealth statements for the previous fiscal year on an annual basis, no later than the 15th of June. Moreover, within 15 days as of the termination of mandate or the cease of activity, they are bound to submit a new wealth statement. Under the same conditions, the members of the Board of Directors are bound to submit also the declaration of interests to the company.

By accepting the administrator mandate, the members of the Board of Directors undertake a firm, unilateral and unconditioned commitment to respect the loyalty and confidentiality obligations regarding any information, data, acts and/or facts that refer to the business performed by CONPET SA, that they have gained knowledge of during the exercise of their administrator attributions.

The members of the Board of Directors will have professional liability insurance, the exchange value thereof being borne by the company, under the conditions provided by the law.
