CAREFUL
OBJECTIVE VIDEO SURVEILLANCE

CONPET SA uses video surveillance for security and protection of persons and company property, as well as monitor access to the site of internal and external personnel.

Since video recordings are sensitive personal data, to facilitate access to the premises of the company is required to acknowledge that they can be stored/processed.

Through the access in society, you declare on oath that you have been informed of the existence of the video surveillance system and you have been made aware of all rights set out in Regulation GDPR, such as the right to information, right to rectify data, access, the right to delete data ("right to be forgotten"), right to restrict the processing, the right to portability, the right to object and the right not to be subjected to an automated or profiling process.

Also, through the access to company premises, you acknowledge that video will be stored by the company in accordance with art. 5 of Law 190/2018, for a period not exceeding 30 days, unless expressly regulated by law or in duly justified cases.

Access to these records only has authorized individuals from the specialized department of the company. Records can be made available to the authorities if requested by them.
