

Rules on the Organization and Functioning of of the Board of Directors of “CONPET” S.A.

(1) The company is administered in unitary system by a Board of Directors consisting of 7 administrators, appointed by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders for a period of 4 years, with the possibility of re-election for further periods of 4 years. The administrators may act as shareholders. For the appointment of an administrator to be legally valid, the person appointed must expressly accept it.

(2) The Board of Directors is presided by a Chairman. The Chairman is elected by the Board of Directors, among its members. The removal from office of the Chairman of the Board of Directors is also attribute of the Board of Directors. The decision regarding the appointment or revocation thereof is being made with the majority vote of the Board of Directors' members.

(3) In case of vacancy of one or more administrator positions, the Board of Directors proceeds to the appointment of one / several provisional administrators, until the reunion of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors will ensure that the majority of non-executive and independent administrators is being maintained when appointing provisional administrators.

(4) The majority of the Board of Directors members are non-executive and independent administrators. When the administrators are appointed by the GMS or by the BoD, it will be taken into account that they fulfill the legal conditions regarding the status of independent administrator, the administrators being bound to fill-in an affidavit regarding independence prior to the appointment. In the event that there are changes regarding the information that form the basis of the affidavit regarding the status of independent administrator, the administrator is bound to immediately inform the Board of Directors by way of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

(5) At the Board of Directors level are being constituted the following consultative committees:

- The Nomination and Remuneration Committee:

- The Audit Committee:

- The Committee for Development and Relation with the Investors and Authorities;

- The Risk Management Committee.

The Board of Directors may set up, by decision, other consultative committees as well, in different areas of business, pursuant to the company's needs and the management strategy thereof. The consultative committees are made up of at least 2 members, one of them holding the position of Chairman of the respective committee. The consultative committees meet whenever necessary, at the President call, and the proposals/recommendations formulated by the Board of Directors (for the substantiation of his resolutions) are adopted by majority of expressed votes. The attributions and responsibilities of the consultative committees are being established by the Board of Directors.

(6) At least one member of each Consultative Committee should be an independent non-executive administrator. The Audit and Nomination and Remuneration Committees consist only of non-executive administrators.

At least one member of the audit committee must have expertise in the application of accounting principles or in financial audit.

(7) The Board of Directors usually meets at the company's headquarters or any place of business of the company or in any place disclosed in the convening notice. Operational meetings of the Board of Directors may be organized by means of remote communication meeting the technical conditions necessary for the identification of the participants, their effective participation to the meetings of the Board of Directors and the retransmission of the deliberations on a continuous basis (via e-mail, telephone, video call or other communication equipment), whenever necessary, but at least every 3 months, at the call of the President or at the reasoned request of 2 of its members or of the Director General/Directors. In this case, the Agenda is being established by the authors of the request. The Chairman must act on such a request. The Board of Directors is ruled by Chairman. In case the Chairman is temporarily incapable of exercising his duties, all along that period, the Board of Directors may charge another administrator with the fulfillment of the Chairman capacity, upon the proposal of the BoD's Chairman;

(8) For the validity of the decisions is necessary the presence (directly or by proxy) of at least five members of the Board and the decisions be made by the majority vote of the present members. The Chairman of the Board of Directors will have the casting vote in case of parity of votes. The Abstention position adopted by an administrator regarding the items included on the agenda of the meeting is not deemed expressed vote.

(9) The Members of the Board of Directors can be represented at the meetings of the respective body exclusively by other members of the same. A present member may represent only one absent member.

(10) For the decisions made in the meetings where a board member did not attend, he remains liable if, within 30 days since he took notice of them, he did not make resistance in the forms specified by law.

(11) The Board of Directors cannot decide on certain issues that are not included in the Agenda, except for emergencies. To decide on emergencies, the absent members will be consulted on the matter, by various means of remote communication. The Chairman shall decide upon the urgency of the problems.

(12) In exceptional cases, motivated by the emergency of the situation and by the company's interest, the decisions of the Board of Directors can be made by the unanimous written vote of the members, the reunion thereof no longer being necessary. This procedure cannot be followed in case of the decisions made regarding the annual financial statements or the authorized capital. The Board of Directors will be required to approve and submit the vote by remote communication means (email).

(13) At the meetings shall attend the Chairman and BoD members, as well as the directors with mandate contract. As the case may be, when necessary, for additional information, the Chairman of the Board of Directors can invite at the meetings internal auditors and any other management or operating employees, as well as specialists in various business areas from outside the company. The Union's President can be also invited, for debating professional, economic and social issues. In view of defending the professional, economic and social rights and interests of the members of the Union, the latter will receive from the company's management the necessary information for the negotiation of the collective labor agreements, under the law and by the agreement of the BoD members. The articles contained in the decisions of the Board of Directors regarding the professional, economic and social issues will be communicated in writing to the President of the Union within two working days as of the date of holding the meeting, only as per the orders of the Director General.

(14) The Board of Directors is charged with the fulfillment of all the necessary and relevant papers for the achievement of the company's core business, except for those set apart by the law for the general meeting of shareholders.

(15) The Chairman and the members of the Board of Directors are being remunerated on a monthly basis, with a fix allowance established by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders will also establish the variable component of the administrators' remuneration.

(16) The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the company cannot also be Director General of the company.
